

Participate in Research: Assistive Mixed Reality Technologies to support People with Dementia

Principal investigator:
Dr. Shital Desai

Research Area:
Assistive technologies

Contact Information:
Dr. Shital Desai

T: 905-430-4055 ext. 6793
M: 416 738 3965

E: desais@ontarioshores.ca

Are you someone

- diagnosed with dementia or mild cognitive impairment,
- in capacity to provide consent,
- able to see (with correction) and hear (with correction),
- Speak English

Then, consider participating in the study about Mixed Reality Technologies.

What is the study about?

The goal of the study is to understand interactions of people with dementia with different types of Mixed Reality technologies.

What's involved?

- Participating in a game play with four technologies.
- Completing a questionnaire for each of the technologies,

What are the benefits of participating?

- Participation in the study will help to shape the way that emerging technologies can be used to support people with dementia;
- Participants will know more about new emerging technologies.

This study has been approved by Research Ethics Board - REB # 18-008-B

Participate in Research: Assistive Mixed Reality Technologies to support People with Dementia

Ontario Shores
Centre for Mental Health Sciences

Alzheimer Society
DURHAM REGION

MRT, Recruitment Flyer (v2; 9.20.2018)